DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This 2½ story house is part of the group of nine faced in random rockcut granite with slate mansards. Four E. Preston, if it had not been altered would have been similar to this house. Though the facade is in nearly original condition, the stone has been painted gold.

There are 2 basement windows protected by grilles with flat stone arches to the right. A stone stoop appears to the left. The entrance is embellished with a stone basket handled arch and transom. The door of wood with an upper glass panel is protected within a vestibule. The two 1st floor windows are one-over-one with fully arched stone lintels.

On the 2nd floor there is a single flat arched window to the left over the entrance. Centered over the oriel, triangular in plan, with 2 windows. The 2nd floor windows are all one-over-one double hung.

A shed dormer with 3 single pane, single hung windows, each with a 9 paned transom (painted over) lights the attic. A stone chimney with a rounded front appears to the right at the peak of the roof.
